

LITERACY BEGINS AT BIRTH

In recognition of the UN's International Day of Education Birth to Three Educational Services in collaboration with the National Library of Guyana presents their 2nd Annual Early Childhood Forum

A session for parents, caregivers and teachers of children age birth to 5

All literacy experiences children have before they start school form powerful brain connections which are used for language, thinking and understanding. Literacy is the foundation for school and lifelong success. Parents, caregivers and teachers can support a child's early literacy development.
